TIED OUT.

There's many a wife sits in the growing shadows of an evening, knowing what it is to feel tired out; as if there was not another ounce of effort left in her. But if healthy she knows how sound her slumber will be and how refreshed the morning will find her. But it's another thing for the sick woman to feel tired out. Not only seems to increase her suffering. She feels acutely the aching back and throbbing nerves. Sick women, hundreds of thousands of them, have been made well by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weaknesses.

"I am pleased to inform you of the benefit I received from using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. Elizabeth A. Oswald, of 45 Brant Street, Windsor, Essex Co., Ontario, Canada. "Was quite discouraged when I wrote asking your advice, as the physicians here told me I could get no relief except by an operation. Suffered for four years from irregular and profuse menstruation, had sick and nervous headaches most of the time, and at times could hardly walk across the floor from weakness. I thank God there is such a remedy as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for suffering women. Before I had taken the first bottle the headaches had left me and it was not long before regularity was established and still continues so. Have just finished house-cleaning which I never used to be able to do again, and can truly say I never felt better than at present. I feel no suffer from female weakness. It cured me and made me stronger in every way. Neither my husband nor myself can enough in its praise."

The selfish seller who urges some substitute is thinking of the larger profit he'll make and not of your best good.

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the hurried-up cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulbs. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpicide kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundance. Herpicide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Dines King in Bathroom.

It was in the bathroom of the Castellanes' splendid house in Paris that they entertained the King of Portugal on Tuesday. The bathroom was turned into a dining-room for the occasion, the great central tub was covered over and the faucets were made to spout as four fountains from banks of flowers. It was very effective, and the marble walls, ceiling and pillars were festooned with blossoms, making the chamber in which Count Boni takes his morning dip look like a Roman banquet hall.

The society journals went into lyric transports over the scene, but Americans are laughing over the scene, but Americans are laughing over the affair—largely because only three or four of them were invited.

Around the exquisitely-appointed tables at the dinner stood footmen innumerable, all splendidly liveried and wearing old-time ceremonial swords, this last detail a feature not seen in Paris for just a century. Count Boni, unlike President Loubet, had been careful to provide for King Carlos's little mania, and gorgeously-attired functionaries stood before the royal chair to remove the royal glass every time the royal lips as much as touched it.

The King had to hold court on the great marble staircase. This was because of the fact that the grand salon is still unfinished.

The Countess looked charming in a superb gown, crowned with a diadem of diamonds, fashioned after the model of one worn by Marie Antoinette.

Fortunes Spent for Jewels.

Fortunes are being spent in the jewelers' shops by wealthy Americans and Englishmen and women, who are making extensive Christmas purchases in Paris. The craze is for the numerous novelties made of lucky stones and loyal amulets.

The Duchess of Marlborough has bought a small collection of sardonyx ornaments. For Mrs. Astor the Duchess ordered one on which an eagle is engraved, while another, for Lily, Duchess of Marlborough, is a quaint beryl pendant with Persian hieroglyphics supposed to have lucky influence.

Consuelo, Duchess of Manchester, has been one of the largest buyers. A vase of translucent enamel, yellowish green, with a base formed of a group of cupids cut from pinkish onyx, is her gift for the Queen, while for her men friends there are diamond and ruby studs and links and gold cigar-holders with lines of fine diamonds.

Another beautiful gift for the Queen is that of the Marquise de Breteuil, who was Miss Gerner, an American. It is a small pair of old ivory ornaments representing groups of female figures, arranged as electric-bell pushes for the writing table.

The Duchess of Roxburghe, although in deep mourning, has made a few purchases, including a pair of Sevres figures and four small antique boxes in Limoges enamel.

Double Tragedy.

Death of Walter Niemann, 29 years old, vice-president of the Niemann Table Company, and probable death for Miss Lucille McLeod, 19 years old, and a daughter of F. R. McLeod, president of the McLeod Iron Pipe Company, is the sequel of a quarrel between the couple and a double shooting in a room at a hotel in Chicago early yesterday morning.

The couple went to the hotel at 10 o'clock last night and, it is said, registered as "William Adams and wife." The shooting took place at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, and when the policemen broke in the door of the room they found Niemann dying, with a bullet wound in the back of his head, and the girl with a bullet hole in her left breast. Niemann died yesterday afternoon.

Three months ago the engagement of Niemann to Miss Meta Fiedler, daughter of A. F. Fielder, was announced. Niemann's relatives deny the assertion that he had married Miss McLeod in Milwaukee. The exact circumstances of the shooting may never be known, as Miss McLeod, although conscious, refuses to discuss the tragedy.

Child's Funeral Costs $5,000.

Marie Barcky, the 14-year old daughter of A. Barcky, an Italian fruit vender, of Pittsburg, died last Wednesday, and her body was laid in the finest casket ever brought to Pittsburg. The funeral yesterday was the most expensive ever held there. The child was an only daughter, and when she died the father was heartbroken. He told the undertaker to spare no expense. The casket is a couch affair, covered with baby blue velvet and trimmed with white satin. It cost $3,000, and is the only one of its kind in existence.

The burial robe is of blue silk, trimmed with point lace; stockings of blue silk; slippers of blue kid. The robe cost $1,000.

There was $500 worth of flowers, and the other expenses will bring the cost of the funeral up to $5,000.

Barcky has spent almost all of his possessions on his daughter's funeral. The house was so thronged with people yesterday afternoon that the police reserves had to be called out. A panic resulted and a number of people were slightly injured.

Dying of Famine

is, in its torments, like dying of consumption. The progress of consumption, from the beginning to the very end, is a long torture, both to victim and friends. "When I had consumed in its first stage," writes Wm. Myers, of Carroll, Md., "after trying different medicines and a good doctor, in vain, I at last took Dr. King's New Discovery, which quickly and perfectly cured me." Prompt relief and cure for coughs, colds, throat, bronchitis, etc. Positively prevents pneumonia. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store, price 60c and $1.00 a bottle. Trial bottle free.

Demonstration at St. Paul's.

London's unemployed made a demonstration at St. Paul's Cathedral yesterday afternoon in a half-hearted, hopeless and unusual manner. Only a few hundred of them, with appropriate banners, went in procession from Trafalgar square to the cathedral, where they arrived during the progress of the service and up the steps of which they marched singing the "Marseillaise." Here the motley crowd was joined by contingents from other quarters, and all, to the number of some 3,000, began filling into the cathedral silently and respectfully, making an incongruous picture in contrast with the fashionably dressed worshippers. Such a scene has not been witnessed at St. Paul's since twenty years ago, when John Burns, now president of the local government board, led a similar demonstration to the cathedral.

Grip Quickly Knocked Out.

"Some weeks ago during the severe winter weather both my wife and myself contracted severe colds which speedily developed into the worst kind of grippe with all its miserable symptoms," says Mr. J. S. Egleston of Maple Landing, Iowa. "Knees and joints aching, muscles sore, head stopped up, eyes and nose running, with alternate spells of chills and fever. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, aiding the same with a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and by its liberal use soon completely knocked out the grip."

It is a good plan to take a dose of the Tablets when you have a cold. They promote a healthy action of the bowels, liver and kidneys which is always beneficial when the system is congested by a cold or attack of the grip. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

The mission of "Early Risers" is to clear the way and give Nature full sway. These famous little pills rid the stomach and bowels of all putrid matter, thus removing the causes of headache, constipation, sallow complexion, etc. DeWitt's Little Early Risers never gripe or sicken. A safe, pleasant, perfect pill. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.
